Dr. Iskandar Iskandar:

We have reached a decision regarding your submission to the International Journal of Marine Engineering Innovation and Research, "Prototype of Bridge Navigational Watch Alarm System Equipped Obstacle Warning System Based On Image Processing And Real Time Tracking".

Our decision is to:
We consider publishing your paper in Vol 7, No 1 (March 2022) based on the recommendation from the reviewer. However, there are still minor revisions. Please revise your manuscript in terms of writing format. The wide table shall be placed in "one column" format. And also there are still words written in Bahasa, for example in Figure. 4. Hardware parts. Please make sure that your manuscript is fully written in English. Thank You
